Rick's Remarks

In a message recently, I said, "It's not so scary to think that everyone in this room will die because everyone has to die. What's disconcerting is that one of us has to go first."

Thom Rainer, president of Lifeway, was quoted in a recent USA Today front page article. If the trends continue, "the millennial generation will see churches closing as quickly as GM dealerships," he said.

It could very well be that some NKBA churches won't survive. A KBC leader said, "We need hospice care for dying churches." If so, which church will die first? Why? What would you do to help reawaken a weak church?

We have some ideas and you may need them. My new schedule allows for late night meetings that include caffeinated coffee.

Cream. No sugar.

Will Rusk

Remember to call on the NKBA Tech Team if you have technology (sound, video, computers, etc.) questions. This team of volunteers will be glad to help.

In addition, Anita Hornsby will be glad to work with your staff on software training. For more information, call 727-6522 or e-mail ahornsby@nkbaptist.org.

Willard Rusk "Service Above Self" Award Winner

Willard Rusk, Ashland Avenue Baptist Church, was presented with the "Service Above Self" Award at the April 12 meeting of the Florence Rotary. This award is Rotary International's highest award for an individual. It recognizes Mr. Rusk's lifetime of "exemplary humanitarian service with an emphasis on personal volunteer efforts..." Willard Rusk's wife, Wanda, his children, grandchildren and other family members were there to celebrate his recognition. Congratulations, Willard, on this tremendous award and thank you for your active involvement in your church, your community, and the NKBA!

Thanks God

My husband, daughters, brother, grandsons, pastors (Bro. Dave and Bro. Pike), son-in-laws, friends (both recent and in past times), have ministered to me in so many exciting ways that have touched me: flowers, stuffed animals, cards, balloons, visits, but most of all, your prayers have saved me and kept me alive. You have offered me from the roots of your hearts. Thank you.

God has and is listening from Crittenden Baptist, my church as a youngster; to South Side Baptist, where God has allowed me to minister, since 1973; and the Northern Kentucky Baptist Association has allowed me so many joys and peace.

The people have been fabulous. I'll be going to rehabilitation after a long journey. Please keep praying for me. Thanks, Helen Cummins
