Rick's Remarks

It's intriguing that we never realize what we have until we don't have it anymore.

It seemed nothing special to be 25 yrs. old when I was that age, but now I would give $1M to be 25. When she was alive, I could have called mom every day, but I didn't. My kids used to want to be with me all the time when they were 6 and 8 yrs. old, but now that they are 20 and 22, they have their own lives at college. Dad used to ask me to go fishing with him....

Why can't we realize the value of what we have TODAY, in March of 2010? I promise that I will do that. ...just don't know why I didn't do it THEN.

Walt Robbins
