Rick's Remarks

Most mean-spirited people are simply hurting inside. They have personal pain that tends to spew out all over other people, at times.

I hate it when Christian people are mean to each other. I despise it when churches get into conflict. We can make tough decisions without fighting. (Most of the time the people causing trouble are simply hurting inside, and they themselves aren't at peace. Sit down with them and let them "vent" and tell their stories.)

I never want to be mean to anybody. I want to be more like Wally Miller. (He's the best Christian I know.)

Spring Clothes Drive

As you start to clean out your closets, remember to put used clothing in heavy garage bags for our spring clothes drive. This year we will be filling the trailer with clothes, small household items and baby items for God's Closet in Manchester, Ky. Their biggest ministry is to unwed mothers. Check out the ministry at <http://godscloset.shutterfly.com>.

In addition, a trailer will be parked at Turfway. They will be collecting clothes for the backsiders. If you have men or women's jeans and work shirts, please put those aside for Turfway.

Debbie Mullins wants to challenge each church to do at least one case of a baby item, such as diapers, baby food, formula, baby vitamins, baby wipes, etc., in addition to children's and adults' clothes.

The trailer will be in the following locations:
